

Saturday, January 14

8:30 AM – 9:15 AM Opening Ceremony-Kathryn Mohrman Theater, Armstrong Hall

Colorado Springs Children's Chorale

Call to Order-Ashley Cornelius, Poet Laureate of the Pikes Peak Region

Welcome from Colorado College Senior Vice President Mike Edmonds

Welcome and Opening Remarks from Educating Children of Color

9:15 AM - 10:00 AM Keynote-Chris Singletary-Love is Stronger Than Hate

10:00 AM - 10:15 AM Break

10:15 AM - 11:30 AM

Addressing the Affective Domain: Creating, Maintaining and Evaluating Inclusive Classroom and School Culture for Emergent Bilingual Students

Bemis Great Hall

11:45 AM - 12:15 PM Lunch in Cornerstone Main Space

12:15 PM - 12:45 PM Addressing the Affective Domain Continued

12:45 PM - 2:15 PM Structured Academic Discussions in Core and Enrichment Classroom

Exploring, Practicing and Implementing Effective Strategies for Beginner and Intermediate level Emergent Bilingual Students

2:15 PM - 2:30 PM Break

2:30 PM - 4:30 PM

Universal Design for Learning\(UDL\) as an Avenue to Address Emergent Bilingual Student Needs

Participants will explore the principles of UDL Expert Learning and Culturally Responsive Teaching. Time will be devoted to exploring UDL strategies and case studies to create a plan of action to address Emergent Bilingual student needs on campuses.